Nani Ka घर

The power goes out, and suddenly the house grows quiet. We sit by the window, hand fan moving slowly, thoughts drifting somewhere far away.

On the old swing, between silence and summer breeze, we begin to listen to our own khayaal.

Power cuts brought discomfort.
But they also brought reflection.

And sometimes, the most beautiful summers were the quietest ones.

Sitting by the window, fanning slowly.

They watched the sky turn deeper shades of blue.

The swing creaks softly, matching her rhythm.
