The left panel shows a full-length photograph of a woman standing against a light green background with white sheer curtains. She is wearing a traditional three-piece outfit in a light yellow or cream color. The top has a long, flowing dupatta (scarf) with a large floral print. The bottom consists of a long, pleated skirt. The right panel is a close-up shot focusing on the woman's hands and part of her face. She is wearing a matching yellow sari with a prominent floral pattern.
